

Directions for use...

Thanks for purchasing an E-casestudy , E-demo or E- tool from OEHS². The file you downloaded must be unzipped and the set of files it contained must be placed in the same folder prior to being played. These files must remain together on your computer during use. You can obtain free software to unzip the files at <http://www.7-zip.org/> . To play the flash file you simply open the “program_name”.htm file in your browser. Your computer must have flash loaded on it (most do). Flash is a free program available at <http://get.adobe.com/flashplayer/> . The resource material available within the program (if any) is formatted as an Adobe PDF document and you must have the free Adobe Reader loaded on your computer to view these documents. You can download a free copy of Adobe Reader at <http://get.adobe.com/reader/> .
